The percentage of Americans under age 65 who lack health insurance dropped from 18 percent in 2010 to 10 percent in 2015. Data from the Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality show uninsurance rates declined among poor people, young adults, and across all races.

All races have benefited from expanded insurance

Fewer poor people were uninsured in 2015

Fewer young adults were uninsured in 2015

Source: http://www.ahrq.gov/research/findings/nhqrdr/nhqdr15/index.html
Publication Date: April 2016